

House Resolution No. 437

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have risen to the top of their profession as exceptional teachers bringing honor and glory to themselves, their school districts, and to the state of Missouri; and

Whereas, Lynn Carney, Katherine Glaude-Bolte, and Theresa Long have earned distinction for their instructional endeavors at the Rockwood R-VI School District in Eureka, Missouri; and

Whereas, Katherine Glaude-Bolte, Theresa Long, and Lynn Carney are a trio of educators who are the first among all of their co-workers at Rockwood to have earned National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, an art teacher at Eureka High School, Theresa Long has served the students of the Rockwood School District for fourteen of her eighteen years as a teacher; and

Whereas, also an art teacher, Lynn Carney works at the Center for Creative Learning and has twelve years of teaching experience, all of which were garnered at Rockwood; and

Whereas, a gifted education teacher, Katherine Glaude-Bolte is at Rockwood South Middle School where she has spent four of her fifteen years as a highly regarded educator; and

Whereas, Rockwood R-VI School District is made up of eighteen elementary schools, six middle schools, and four high schools; utilizes the knowledge, skills, and training of nearly sixteen hundred certificated staffers; and prepares nearly twenty-two thousand students for their future roles as productive citizens and community leaders:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the strong educational careers of Theresa Long, Katherine Glaude-Bolte, and Lynn Carney and to convey to them this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes upon their receipt of prestigious National Board Certification in their respective specialties; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of National Board certified teachers Lynn Carney, Katherine Glaude-Bolte, and Theresa Long in the Rockwood R-VI School District of Eureka, Missouri.
